

“Now to Live the Life”

Being an Authentic Worshipper

- (1) Play the song, “Now to Live the Life” (Matt Redman - “The Heart of Worship” CD) or have someone on the worship team read the lyrics to the song (below).
- (2) Break up into small groups (3-4 people)
- (3) Doing each section one at a time, read the scripture passage(s) out loud together.
- (4) Discuss/dialogue about the verses (What is it saying to you?/How does this apply to where you are at right now?/how is it challenging you to grow?)
- (5) You may choose to pray together after each bulleted section or pray at the end of all three.

What does authentic worship look like?

- It means we have a radical allegiance to God

Scripture: Daniel 3:16-18

“No other gods...” (Deut.5:7)

Not just what we will do but what we won't do

- It means we worship with reckless abandon

Scripture: 2 Samuel 6: 12-15, 21-22

With all our heart, mind, body, soul, strength

Full authentic expression of love and adoration to Him

“I will be even more undignified than this...”

- It means we are available

Scripture: 1 Sam.15:22

Seeing ourselves as servants of the Most High God (Phil. 2)

“Trust and obey” - “where He leads, I will follow”

Open to discipline

Ready for adventure!

Many are the words we speak

Many are the songs we sing

Many kinds of offerings

Now to live the life

(We hope that) Precious are the words we speak

(We pray that) Precious are the songs we sing

Precious all these offerings

Now to live the life

Help us live the life

Help us live the life

All we want to do

Is bring you something real

Bring You something true

Now to go the extra mile

Now to turn the other cheek

And to serve You with our life

Let us share your fellowship

Even of your sufferings

Never let the passion die...

Now to live the life...
